JUPITER POLICE DEPARTMENT AWARDS CEREMONY

On behalf of the Chief of Police, Frank Kitzerow, all media personnel are invited to attend the Jupiter Police Department's Annual Awards and Recognition Ceremony. This ceremony will be held on Wednesday, February 24, 2010, at 6:00 p.m. in the Jupiter Community Center, 210 Military Trail, Jupiter. This year we welcome members of the Jupiter Middle School Jazz Band who will provide the musical prelude. Our honored guest, WPEC Channel 12 News Anchor Ric Blackwell, will be presenting the awards throughout the ceremony:

The annual awards ceremony is intended to recognize police officers, civilians and community members for their outstanding service to the agency and/or community. During the ceremony, awards will be given for Bravery, Life Saving, Community Involvement as well as many other recognized accomplishments.

There will be a visual collage presentation and recipients of the awards will be available for interviews and photographs at the conclusion of the program.
