March 8, 2008 - On Saturday, March 8, 2008 at approximately 3:20 a.m., officers responded to a traffic crash at the railroad crossing at Riverside Drive and Alternate A1A (S.R. 811).

A silver 2001 four-door Audi, attempting to cross west over the railroad tracks, was struck by a southbound FEC Railroad train.

The driver, Rory R. Brown (black male, born 09/06/1979), was the sole occupant of the vehicle. He sustained serious bodily injuries and was transported by ambulance to St. Mary's Hospital.

Officer George Albert is continuing his investigation into the crash and updates will be provided when they become available.
