SUSPECTS SOUGHT IN CONNECTION WITH RESTAURANT BURGLARY

January 2, 2008 -- On December 18th, 2007 at approximately 4:30 AM, the Boston Market restaurant in Jupiter, Florida was burglarized by at least three unknown males. The suspects used their own tools to remove a safe from within. One of the suspects could be seen using a cell phone while the three subjects were in the office indicating there may have been a fourth subject outside.

The suspects may have been driving a 2008 Gray Pontiac G6 four door that was rented from the AVIS at the Miami International Airport. Anyone with information concerning the identity of any of the pictured suspects please contact Detective Jason VanSteenburgh at 561-741-2234.
