THOMAS SUTTONS FACES ADDITIONAL WEAPON'S CHARGE

March 4, 2008 -- Detectives from the Jupiter Police Department charged Thomas Alexander Sutton, 09/23/1981, with Possession of a Short Barreled Shotgun. The firearm was discovered during the execution of a lawful search warrant at his residence on Thelma Avenue following his arrest for Manslaughter.

A large number of firearms and ammunition was seized from the home following the shooting during the early morning hours of February 29, 2008. After inventorying and processing the seized firearms it was determined one of those weapons had been cut down below the legal length which is a second degree felony. Sutton remains in the Palm Beach County Jail.

Please contact Sergeant Scott Pascarella, Public Information Officer, for additional information. (561-262-8172)
