LOCAL RESIDENTS HELP CATCH BURGLARY SUSPECT

October 15, 2009 – The Jupiter Police Department investigated two residential burglaries that occurred within the Riverwalk development on October 6, 2009 and October 13, 2009. Two residents within the community assisted officers with identifying the location of the stolen property taken from both burglaries.

On Wednesday, October 14, 2009, Detectives were able to obtain a search warrant for the residence of 6238 Riverwalk Lane #5, belonging to the suspect Charles S. Heath (white/male 05/05/1979).

A subsequent search led to the discovery of Charles Heath, and the items which had been reported stolen from the above-mentioned burglaries; a lap top computer and surf board.

Charles Heath was subsequently charged with Residential Burglary (2 counts) and Grand Theft. He was processed and later booked into the Palm Beach County Jail without incident.
