Jupiter Death Investigation

February 7, 2009 -- At approximately 10 am this morning, Jupiter Police Department received information from Florida Highway Patrol that a green Chevrolet Camaro was involved in a shooting at a rest stop on I-95 in Martin County, later confirmed by FHP. FHP also confirmed another shooting somewhere between the rest stop in Martin County and Jupiter. Neither incident resulted in injury.

At 11:08 a.m., Jupiter Police received a call regarding a disturbance at 1718 17th Court in the Lakes section of the Bluffs in Jupiter. Upon arrival, officers discovered one deceased white female. An additional white female was discovered in an upstairs room. After a brief negotiation, the woman was taken into custody by the Jupiter Police Department. The green Chevrolet Camaro was discovered in the parking lot behind the residence on 17th Court.

During the course of the onsite investigation, it was discovered that a possible second victim could be in the vicinity of Gardens Lakes area in Palm Beach Gardens. Palm Beach Gardens Police responded, and confirmed a deceased white male.

The Jupiter Police Department is continuing to investigate this matter along with the other involved agencies. Additional information on this case will be provided as it becomes available.
