FORMER TEACHER ARRESTED FOR LEWD CONDUCT

May 6, 2009 – The Jupiter Police Department has arrested a former Jupiter Christian English teacher for sending a student inappropriate text messages. Investigation revealed Geneva Henry (white/female, 09/28/1979) had been sending a student inappropriate text messages through the “MySpace” web site since December 2008.

When administrators from Jupiter Christian School confronted Geneva Henry prior to the police investigation, Ms. Henry asked to resign from her position as a teacher and conceded that she had sent these messages.

On May 6, 2009, Geneva Henry surrendered herself at the Palm Beach County Jail where she was charged with Lewd and Lascivious Conduct.

Please contact Sergeant Reggie Scurry, 561-746-6201, for additional information concerning this investigation.
