TRAFFIC CRASH UPDATE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: December 24, 2011 (6:30PM)

Jupiter, Florida – On Monday, December 19, 2011, at 5:54 PM, members of the Jupiter Police Department responded to a traffic crash with injuries that occurred near the intersection of Indiantown Road and Central Boulevard. Preliminary investigation determined an elderly female was walking across the southbound lanes of Central Boulevard (17000 block) when she was struck by a dark colored SUV, which left the area.

The female, later identified as Eunice Dekiel (94 y.o.a.), was transported to St. Mary's Hospital, via Trauma Hawk, with life threatening injuries. As of this date she remains in critical condition.

Investigators believe, based on evidence and video obtained, that the vehicle is a 2002-2009 GMC Envoy. The vehicle is dark in color, and should have sustained front end damage. Video indicates the vehicle is equipped with a roof rack, and trimmed in chrome. Anyone with information is urged to contact the Jupiter Police Department (561)746-6201.

Included in this press release is a photograph of a similar vehicle, as well as a still photograph of the suspect vehicle.
