Traffic Homicide Arrest

September 10, 2009 – On Friday, June 26, 2009 at approximately 12:21 am, members of the Jupiter Police Department responded to a traffic crash with injuries that occurred on Alternate A1A, just north of the Three Palms Plaza. At the time of the crash, the northbound right lane was shut down and construction crews were on scene completing a road-resurfacing project.

Upon conducting the investigation, it was discovered that a Toyota Solara, traveling north on Alternate A1A, struck three of the workers from the construction crew and another vehicle, a Toyota Camry that was also traveling north. Two of the workers were pronounced deceased on scene and one was transported to Jupiter Medical Center with non-life threatening injuries.

Follow-up investigation conducted by Officer Philip Gelina has resulted in an arrest. On September 10, 2009 at 4:04 p.m., Cynthia Gail Castoro (white/female, 10/23/65) turned herself in at the Jupiter Police Department where she was charged and arrested for the following crimes:

DUI manslaughter for the death of Steven Dunn, DUI manslaughter for the death of Jesus Resendiz, DUI serious bodily injury on Clint Talley and DUI property damage and minor injuries on Frido Jean Baptiste.

She was later transported to the Palm Beach County jail without incident.
