Roy S. Rood—Jupiter Pioneer

Roy Rood was born in 1918 in the area known as Rood, Florida, which is now a part of Jupiter Farms. When he died in October of 2011, Jupiter lost one of its last pioneers. This page is designed to let folks know something about Roy Rood the man and his remarkable legacy.

View the complete Palm Beach Post article about Mr. Rood.

View an article titled "Memories of Pioneer Roy Rood" by Jan Davison, a member of the Treasure Coast Community, and originally published on TCPalm.com.

Mr. Rood was interviewed for an article about growing up in Jupiter which appeared in the local newspaper in 1973. This article was later re-printed in the book "The Loxahatchee Lament." (Vol. 1 © 1978 the Stuart News Company, © 1978 Cary Publications, Inc., All Rights Reserved.)