

Jupiter Community Park Easter Egg Scavenger Hunt 3377 Church Street

Monday, April 4 through Sunday, April 10

The Easter Bunny hid nine eggs throughout Jupiter Community Park for residents to find in a self-guided scavenger hunt. Each egg has a letter on it for you to discover. After finding all of the eggs, a secret message will be revealed. The first 1,500 participants to find all nine hidden eggs and discover the Easter Bunny's secret message will receive an Easter giveaway bag. If you would like to turn in your completed sheet to the Easter Bunny himself, bring it in from 4:30 to 5:30 pm on Tuesday, April 5; Wednesday, April 6; or Thursday, April 7. The Easter Bunny will also be collecting forms from 10:00 am to noon on Saturday April 9.

CLUES:

1. _____: The Easter Bunny hopped on down Island Way and entered Jupiter Community Park. He hid the first egg right by the entrance sign.

This egg is sponsored by 2JDATA.

2. _____: There are so many soccer fields, so the Easter Bunny stopped to admire the teams playing. He noticed a small sign that said "No golf" and hid the second egg there.

This egg is sponsored by Arise Center for Athletic Development.

3. _____: The Easter Bunny then made his way over to the pavilion and ate a picnic lunch after hiding egg number three. He was able to watch some baseball during his break.

This egg is sponsored PonTiki LLC.

4. _____: While looking for hiding spots, the Easter Bunny found his favorite playground in town and dropped off the fourth egg there.

5. _____: While walking around the baseball fields, the Easter Bunny noticed this tall building in the middle of the fields. Here is where you will find egg number five.

6. _____: The Easter Bunny kept walking to the right and watched a game on the field. The players didn't spot him, but he left the sixth egg at the back of the field.

7. _____: Hopping through the parking lot, the Easter Bunny decided he wanted to see some soccer, and left egg number seven in this area.

8. _____: All of this hopping made the Easter Bunny thirsty. He went over to the bathrooms by the fields, took a few sips of water and left behind the eighth egg.

9. _____: This hunt is now close to its end. Check for egg number nine on the other side of the bathrooms!
